➤ ABOUT ME

As an enthusiastic and driven ADA Public Relations student, I bring a unique blend of creativity, dedication, and responsibility to each project. With a deep interest in marketing and social media management (SMM), I strive to use my knowledge of these fields to make a meaningful impact. My academic background combined with practical experience gained through internships and projects has shaped my ability to analyse and think strategically, making me adaptable to a rapidly changing environment. I'm always willing to gain new knowledge and broaden my horizons, and I will always be happy to contribute to useful projects for society
